In 2009 Jennifer Fountain founded Growing Up Triplets, a blog about the journey to live life naturally, parent with authenticity and serve the Saviour. Jennifer is the mother of triplets with #4 on the way! Her desire is to reach women where they're at with encouragement and practical solutions for their growth as women, mothers, sisters, friends, wives.

Women between the ages of 20-45 are her most avid readers and are constantly returning to find help and encouragement for so many areas of life.
